

Calico and Cushions, the husband and wife team who created this simple yet indulgent theme, supplied gorgeous bedroom furnishings. The bedspread fabric is 'Venus Leather' from James Dunlop. (not pictured)

Divine possibilities: the Kohler Sok bath completes the luxurious, earthy, and natural tone of this spectacular home with absolute elegance.

the bedroom and other rooms throughout the home, exactly as the homeowners had envisioned. Calico and Cushions are a husband and wife team who perform their own measuring, fitting, sewing, and consulting service, focusing on quality, not quantity. They enjoy working with a variety of clients and consistently aim to offer excellent service with every project undertaken.

The dwelling features stunningly effective beveled edged Kahrs oak floors in an oiled Dublin brown. This natural product both looks great and has a relaxed feel, with a surface and appearance reminiscent of times gone by. Oak has distinct graining and figuring, bearing witness to the course of nature over generations. It is also an extremely hardwearing and easy to clean flooring product. Feilding Carpet Court stocks a wide range of flooring and has won many awards of excellence in business. Their high standards and pride in providing excellent service made them an ideal choice to fit out this special home.

Following the theme of their meticulous residence, the owners were careful to choose the perfect electrical fittings. Black slimline Clipsal electronic fittings were selected and installed throughout the home due to their unobtrusive, unique style. Malcolm Bradley of Bradley Electrical Ltd was the sole electrician on the job and diligently worked to the lighting plan provided, making changes where required. Twelve-volt Halogen copper lighting was chosen to adorn the outside wall lights, while the hanging light fittings including a chandelier to give this home a feeling of sturdy, practical luxury. Bradley Electrical Ltd offers a complete range of electrical services for new homes including home automation as well as standard electrical wiring.

This bathroom is a breath-taking and original part of this outstanding home. Kealls Plumbing Plus was chosen for their quality bathroom fashion products and extensive combined experience. They supply to builders, homeowners, and the farming sector within the Manawatu region. As an integral part of the home, the bathroom needed to reflect and enhance the remainder of the home while staying in check with the overall theme. A white Kohler Sok bath, set in an attractive timber encasement, is a highlight of this multi-faceted bathroom, a reincarnation of the ritual of bathing. This ultra-deep, tranquil bathing pool offers the ultimate soaking experience. The self-contained overflowing bath from Kohler stimulates the senses while fully relaxing the bather, providing a personal haven of warm water, suspended by a blanket of tiny effervescent bubbles that cling to the body and caress the skin. This incredible bath nestled within this delightful bathroom has created a private retreat with divine possibilities. ■